REJOICE REJOICE!

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL 1993

ARCHDIOCESE OF DETROIT 1234 Washington Blvd. D

The obligation of paschal confession and Communion has been imposed upon all Catholics by the Church. All who have been initiated into the Body and Blood of Christ are obliged to attend to confession and communion during the Easter season. This is the law of the Church and we are bound in sin to attend to it.

The first Sunday in Lent through the Easter season until the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity, June 6, is the specified time for this fulfillment

Spowiedz Wielkanocna sie konczy ze swietem Trojcy Przenajswietszej ktora przypada w niedziele 6 czerwca.

Kazdy katolik jest zobowiazany prawem koscielnym byc u spowiedzi i przyjac Komunie swieta w tym okresie.

We have much to attain by a delay that we now extend until the quota is finalized. We admit that $11,467.00 is a lot to expect from a parish like our own. However, the surplus of non-committed donations must be drawn from the parish funds. To all who have done their share....we Thank You a lot!

Where There is Love
There is God

The Ladies Society will meet on Tuesday, May 18, 1993, at noon in the School Auditorium. Serious business will be discussed so then the presence of all members is requested.

A warm meal and entertainment is always offered at these meetings. The presence of new members is always welcome, if we can attract other Ladies from the parish to come. You are welcome!
