Our History

This year, as the City of Bad Axe celebrates its centennial, we as a parish are celebrating 117 years of being a faith community here in Bad Axe. In the 1880s, priests would come to Bad Axe by train from Port Austin five or six times a year to celebrate Mass and the other sacraments. They would have Mass in one of the homes of the parish. Approximately 30 families met for Mass whenever the priest was able to come.

In 1888, the 36 families of Sacred Heart sacrificed much of their time, talent, and treasure to purchase land for a new church building (the present site of today's church), purchasing the land for $200 and then, according to our church history, "every man and woman turned out for the raising of the church" on that site. That white-framed church served the Catholic community of Bad Axe until 1948, when the present church was built and dedicated. At that time, the original church was moved to the site of the new parish rectory at the corner of Hopson and Scott streets, where it served as a social hall for the parish for many years.

From 1888 to 1897, Sacred Heart Parish remained a mission parish, being served first by the pastor at Port Austin and later by the pastor at Palms. The priests were able to come only about once a month to offer Mass, hear confessions, and celebrate the other sacraments.

In 1897, the first permanent pastor of Sacred Heart was named (Fr. James Stapleton) and he built a rectory just north of the church, which served until a new rectory was purchased and built in 2003. During the early years of Sacred Heart becoming a parish, the priests here also served other communities, such as Harbor Beach and Sheridan Corners. Under Fr. Stapleton's leadership and foresight, enough land was purchased not only for a rectory, but also for the future sites of the school and parish hall. Fr. Stapleton also was responsible for the purchase of the land that is now the Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Fifteen priests have served Sacred Heart Parish as pastor since 1888. The longest serving pastor by far was Msgr. Charles Roark, who served from 1940-1966 - a time in which our parish grew in both size and spirit. Among his many accomplishments during his tenure, the present Sacred Heart church building was built at the cost of $132,000. The first Mass in the new church was celebrated on Christmas Eve, 1949. The total cost of the new church, including a new pipe organ, stained glass windows, chimes and angelus bell cost $200,000. Within seven years, the church was paid off.

Fr. William Hermes built a parish school in 1925 It was served by the Adrian Dominican Sisters, who taught many generations of young people about our faith traditions until 1971. This building now is used for parish education programs and houses the parish offices.

During Fr. Ray Oswald's tenure, a new social hall was built to serve the needs of the growing congregation. The building was designed to be an all-purpose structure to be used for education and social events. After Fr. Oswald's untimely death in 1978, the social hall was named in his honor.

In 2004, after more than 100 years of having one or more priests assigned only to serve the pastoral and spiritual needs of the people in the Bad Axe area, the pastor of Sacred Heart was again asked to serve two other parishes in Huron County - St. Joseph's in Rapson and Most Holy Trinity at Smith Corners. As we enter into this new era of being "companions of the journey" with our neighboring parishes to the east, we see how to be a parish more in the vision of the Second Vatican Council. Now, we see more involvement by our laity, greater participation of parents in the religious formation of their youth, the willing spirit of parishioners on all levels, and greater outreach to the need of our community.

As we publish this 2005 pictorial directory, our parish is the largest Catholic parish in Huron County with more than 500 families. And as a church dedicated in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, we are reminded of the words of the Lord on the night before he died: "Love one another as I love you." As a parish community under the patronage of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, these words express well our spirit and our ongoing challenge as a parish community.

- Fr. James R. Carlson

Parishioners worship inside the old church. Do you notice the Sacred Heart of Jesus statue?

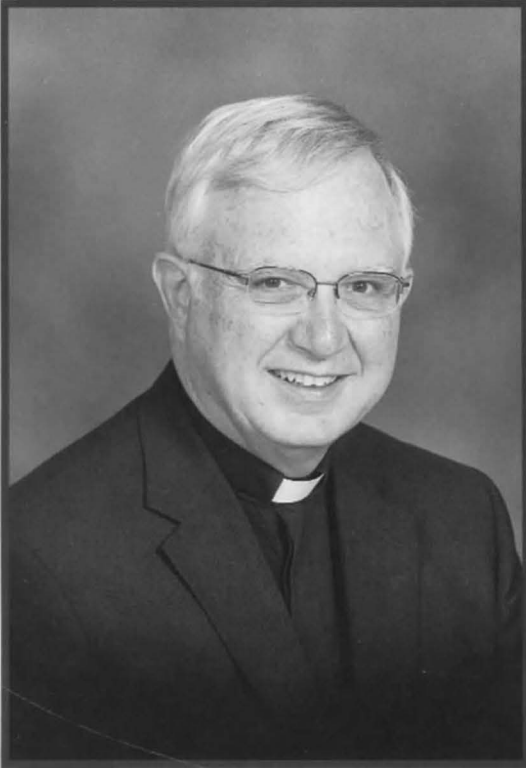

It was standing room only at the first Midnight Mass celebrated in the new church at Christmas, 1949.

Msgr. Roark presents the parish's nuns with a new station wagon. Nice wheels, ladies!

Our Pastor

Fr. James R. Carlson

Dear parishioners and friends of Sacred Heart,

“Love one another as I love you.” These words said by the Lord Jesus to his disciples the night before He died truly expressed the spirit and the challenge of our parish family of Sacred Heart here in Bad Axe. What an honor and what a responsibility to have our parish named after the Sacred Heart of Jesus, symbolizing how great a love our Lord has for each of us.

We, this parish family of Sacred Heart, celebrate the mystery of Christ from the Incarnation to the Resurrection by serving God and all people. Members by choice, baptized into the ministry of Christ, we build the Kingdom of God in this little corner of the world by experiencing Christ in each other and by putting into action the command of love of our Lord. Jesus calls us to live the Gospel message, using our gifts and talents to reflect his love.

Here in this parish, we experience the life-giving waters of baptism, we seek forgiveness for our sins and are nurtured by Christ in the Eucharist. Here, we are anointed with Holy Chrism. Here, men and women come to have their marriages blessed. Here, we gather to anoint the sick and give consolation and a message of hope to families grieving the death of a loved one. We also pass on our faith tradition to a new generation of Catholics in our religious education program and parish youth ministry. We reach out and serve the needs of the poor and needy in our wider Huron County community through our food pantry and our service programs. In all we do, we as a parish are to be the presence of Christ to others.

I hope this new pictorial directory will serve to bring our community of faith more into a spirit of oneness. The photos of families and parish activities serve as a testament of the vitality of our parish. My earnest prayer is that all of us will continue to grow into oneness and be blessed with the peace, joy, and love of Christ. May we support and encourage one another in honoring the past while embracing the future, always open to God’s Holy Spirit.

Sincerely in the Lord,

Our Parish Staff

“So when he washed their feet, put his garments back on, and reclined at table again he said to them, ‘Do you realize what I have done for you? You call me teacher and master, and rightfully so, for indeed I am. If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash one another’s feet. I have given you a model to follow, so that as I have done for you, you should also do. Amen, amen, I say to you, no slave is greater than his master nor any messenger greater than the one who sent him. If you understand this, blessed are you if you do it.’”
