

The St. Maurice Family

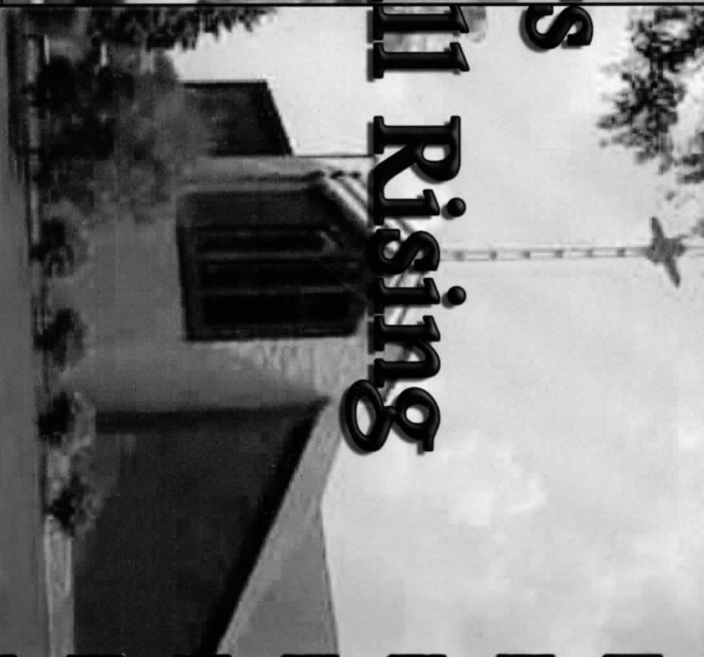

2000~ 2001 A.D.

The Church of believing families continues to encounter the risen Christ and rise with Him to meet the challenges of the new millennium
so that in proclaiming his life,
others may come to see and believe..how...
Jesus is...the way, the truth and the life.

Forty Years & Still Rising

Dear Friends,

When Father invited me to write an introduction to this Parish photo directory, I was somewhat reluctant to do so. I said to myself "He's the new pastor, he should do it." The thought also crossed my mind that his thinking was "Let Father Jack see it completed and make his own remarks since he started it."

I said to myself it would only make good sense if he and I sat down and exchanged ideas. What you have here is an attempt on my part to share our mutual thoughts.

Sunday after Sunday, your parish bulletin, The Medallion, is made up of many names—they are named in a schedule of one of the many parish ministries, clubs and organizations or people in the pew. But, Who are they? They have names, but who can identify them? The usual answer is "well they're parishioners, but I can't say who they are."

Hopefully this pictorial directory which was begun on the fortieth anniversary of the parish, in conjunction with end of the twentieth century and second millennium, and the beginning of a new century and the third millennium, will help us know each other better as we celebrate.

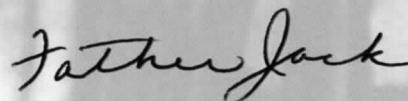

The Church began when the Apostles went out and preached the revelation they had received from Jesus and people believed them. "Faith comes through hearing," the Apostle Paul writes, "and what is heard is the word of Christ." Thus, a faith community was carved out of the existing society. St. John put it this way, "We are declaring to you what we have seen and heard so that you too, may share our life. Our life is shared with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ."

The mission of the Church and the mission of St. Maurice Parish, begun in 1960, and continues through all believers whose faith affects the way they live. As Pope Paul VI wisely commented, "The world no longer listens to teachers but rather to witnesses." "If it listens to teachers, it is only because they are also witnesses." The pictures of individuals and of families, along with their identifying names in this pictorial book, all are witnesses, believers who found their faith in one another in this community founded on Christ – as were the Apostles and others who were the Church in her early beginnings.

Now you have a new pastor. You will grow and you will age. You have a new era of opportunity. Still, St. Maurice Parish will remain the same because all her parishioners will be authentic witnesses for each other of their faith in the revelation they received from Christ and the Apostles.

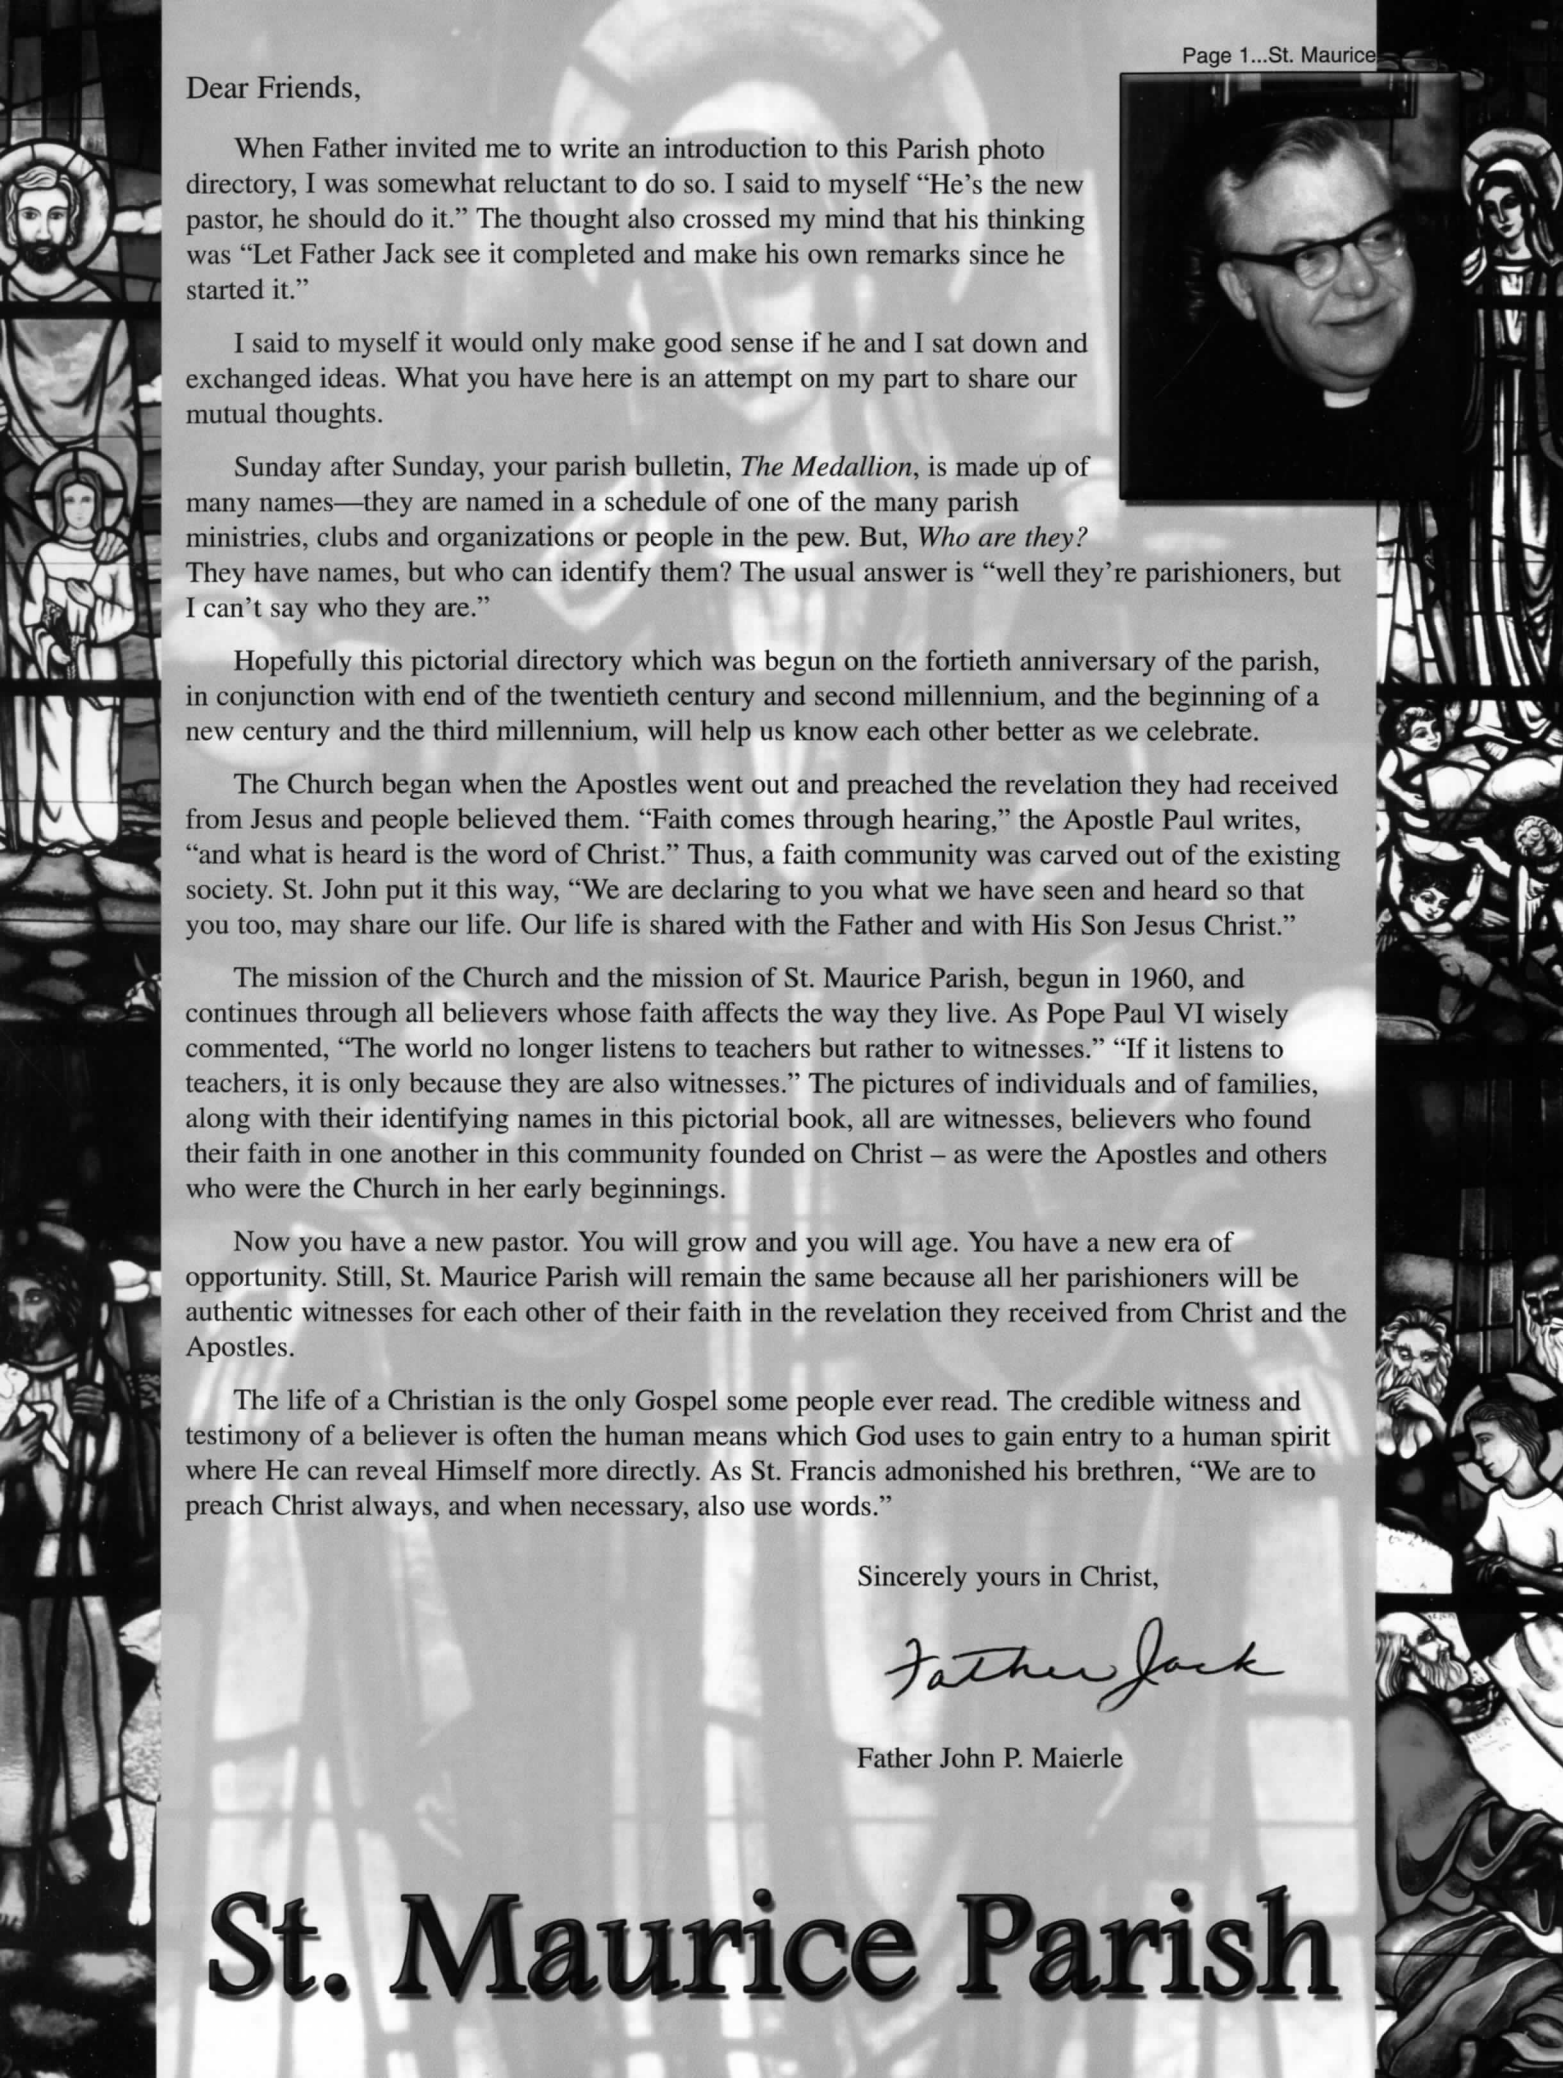

The life of a Christian is the only Gospel some people ever read. The credible witness and testimony of a believer is often the human means which God uses to gain entry to a human spirit where He can reveal Himself more directly. As St. Francis admonished his brethren, "We are to preach Christ always, and when necessary, also use words."

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Father John P. Maierle

who continue to be His Church,

Amen!

Jesus toured all the towns and villages. He taught in their synagogues, he proclaimed the good news of God's reign, and he cured every sickness and disease. At the sight of the crowds, his heart was moved with pity. They were lying prostrate from exhaustion, like sheep without a shepherd. He said to his disciples: "The harvest is good but the laborers are scarce. Beg the harvest master to send out the laborers to gather his harvest." Mt 9, 35-38

(It is estimated that there will be fifty fewer priests in this archdiocese in the year 2010 than at this present time. Pray for vocations to the priesthood. For more information call the Archdiocese of Detroit Vocations Office (313) 237-5875)
