Foreword

In 1955 we published the first Diocesan book of classes and priests' pictures in observance of our Fifteenth Anniversary. This publication was prompted by the desire to commemorate the anniversary, and by our observations of the pictures of the Ordinandi classes appearing in the newspapers. We had thought for many years that these pictures would make a valued booklet if they could be gathered into one place.

Judging from the comments and very kind compliments which we have received on the Fifteenth Anniversary book, our thinking was correct. The book was appreciated and did serve a useful purpose.

We, therefore, decided to issue the book once again in observance of our Twentieth Anniversary, which occurred in June, 1960. Preparing such a book is a gigantic task, which was begun in the winter of 1959, and continued through the spring, summer and fall. We had planned to distribute the book in early fall, but we ran into a very unfortunate technical difficulty. We thought that we could use many of the old plates from the Fifteenth Anniversary book and could concentrate on procuring missing pictures, and pictures of the new classes. Unfortunately, it was discovered that many of the old plates had deteriorated in five years and pictures for them also had to be procured. This was a long and difficult undertaking, and it isn't until now that the project is finally complete.

It is, therefore, our privilege, in observance of our Twentieth Anniversary, to forward this booklet to you, with our compliments, in appreciation for your help in making the past twenty successful years possible.

We have included every class which still has at least one living member. We regret it was impossible to procure a class picture of every class, or every priest, despite every effort on our part to do so.

We are grateful to Mr. Jack Johnston, reference librarian at the Scranton Times, who supplied the pictures of the classes from 1929 to 1954.

We are also grateful to the following for their kind assistance and suggestions: Rt. Rev. Msgr. Joseph A. Madden, Chancellor; Very Rev. Msgr. E. William Fontinell, Assistant Chancellor; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. Cawley, Editor, The Catholic Light; Joseph Lynn of the Catholic Light staff; Mr. Manus Langan, our printer; the many individual Priests who supplied missing class pictures or individual pictures; and Miss Frances Demko, office secretary, who handled the vast amount of detail necessary to assemble and publish so many pictures.
