Foreword

In 1955, we published the first Diocesan book of classes and priests' pictures, in observance of our Fifteenth Anniversary. This publication was prompted by the desire to commemorate the anniversary, and by our observations of the pictures of the Ordinati classes appearing in the newspapers. We had thought for many years that these pictures would make a valued booklet, if they could be gathered into one place.

In 1960, we published the second anniversary book of pictures, as we observed our 20th Anniversary. We republished in 1965 and 1968; the latter in observance of the 100th Anniversary of the Diocese of Scranton, and then in 1975 in observance of the Guild's 35th Anniversary.

Judging from the comments and very kind compliments which we have received on the previous anniversary books, apparently our thinking was correct. The books were appreciated, and did serve a useful purpose.

In 1975, for our 35th Anniversary, we changed the format from group pictures to individual pictures. This was a herculean task, but we succeeded in obtaining every picture.

It is therefore, our privilege in observance of our Fortieth Anniversary, to forward this booklet to you, with our compliments, in appreciation of your help in making the past forty successful years possible.

We have included every class which still has at least one living member.

We are grateful to the following for their kind assistance and suggestions: The Most Reverend J. Carroll McCormick, D.D., Bishop of Scranton; Most Rev. James C. Timlin, Auxiliary Bishop; Rev. Bernard E. Yarrish, S.T.L., Assistant Chancellor; Msgr. Joseph P. Gilgallon, M.A., Editor, The Catholic Light; Art Perry of the Catholic Light staff; Mr. James Kisel, our printer; the priests who supplied pictures, and Mrs. Margaret Carey, office secretary, who handled the vast amount of detail necessary to assemble and publish so many pictures.

Respectfully yours,

Frank K. Maher,
General Manager
DIOCESAN GUILD STUDIOS

Note: Every priest and sister superior will receive one copy free.
Additional copies are $10.00 and $5.00 to religious. Thank you.
