OUR HISTORY

In this year 2010, Sacred Heart Parish celebrates 122 years as a Faith Family. In the 1880's, priests would come to Bad Axe by train from Port Austin five or six times a year to celebrate Mass and the other sacraments. They would have Mass in one of the homes of the parish. Approximately 30 families met for Mass whenever the priest was able to come.

In 1888, the 36 families of Sacred Heart sacrificed much of their time, talent, and treasure to purchase land for a new church building (the present site of today's church), purchasing the land for $200. That white-framed church served the Catholic community of Bad Axe until 1948, when the present church was built and dedicated. At that time, the original church was moved to the site of the new parish rectory at the corner of Hopson and Scott streets, where it served as a social hall for the parish for many years.

From 1888 to 1997, Sacred Heart Parish remained a mission parish, being served first by the pastor at Port Austin and later by the pastor at Palms. The priests were able to come only about once a month to offer Mass, hear confessions, and celebrate the other sacraments.

In 1897, the first permanent pastor of Sacred Heart was named (Fr. James Stapleton) and he built a rectory just north of the church, which served until a new rectory was purchased and built in 2003. During the early years of Sacred Heart becoming a parish, the priests here also served other communities, such as Harbor Beach and Sheridan Corners. Under Fr. Stapleton's leadership and foresight, enough land was purchased not only for a rectory, but also for the future sites of the school and parish hall. Fr. Stapleton also was responsible for the purchase of the land that is now the Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Sixteen priests have served Sacred Heart Parish as pastor since 1888. In 1948, the present Sacred Heart church building was built at the cost of $132,000. The first Mass in the new church was celebrated on Christmas Eve, 1949. The total cost of the new church, including a new pipe organ, stained glass windows, chimes and angelus bell cost $200,000. Within seven years, the church was paid off.

Fr. William Hermes built a parish school in 1925. It was served by the Adrian Dominican sisters, who taught many generations of young people about our faith traditions until 1971. This building now is used for parish education programs and houses the parish offices.

In 2004, the pastor of Sacred Heart was asked to serve two other parishes in Huron County - St. Joseph's in Rapson and Most Holy Trinity at Smith Corners. As we enter into this new era of being "companions on the Journey" with our neighboring parishes to the east, we see how to be a parish more in the vision of the Second Vatican Council.

Our Pastor

Fr. Robert Howe

We gather as Sacred Heart Parish to pray, to learn, to serve and to be transformed into the Body of Christ. By calling forth a variety of gifts and talents, we seek to provide a place where all can grow in holiness and loving service.

Fr. James Gavitt

Dear People of God,

The many faces in this book are all unique. They are different ages. Some have seen long lives full experiences and memories. Some are infants with a lifetime awaiting them. Yet, all the people in this book share one thing in common. We are all created in God's image and likeness. Each of us helps to make up the Body of Christ in our section of Huron County.

I hope that you will find this directory a valuable addition to your home. Use it to get to know the people we gather with each week. Our three parishes are tied together not only by the Priests that serve them but also by the close knit nature of our people. I have come to see the parishes of Most Holy Trinity, St. Joseph and Sacred Heart as warm, welcoming and Spirit filled. I am sure you do as well.

Peace to you and enjoy our new directory!

In the Love of Christ,

Fr. Robert Howe
