Foreword

Without Him We Can Do Nothing

The Class of '53, in selecting for their yearbook theme, WHEN JESUS IS PRESENT, ALL IS WELL, has tried to portray a typical year—the accomplishments of the students in their religious life, their scholastic achievements, their various classes and clubs, their student government, and their athletics. God works in all and through all these achievements, giving proper increase after honest human efforts have been put forth. St. Paul tells us that without Him we can do nothing; and therefore, with Him (for Him, and in Him we worked. He taught us His ways and we shall walk in His paths; for only then—WHEN JESUS IS PRESENT, ALL IS WELL.

This Is My Body, This Is My Blood

We consider ourselves fortunate beyond measure to be graduated in the year which marks a double significance: First, the elevation of our Beloved Pastor, Reverend Vincent Borkowicz, to the honor of Domestic Prelate of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII; Second, the five-hundredth anniversary of the publication of the Catholic Gutenberg Bible. It is from this Book that excerpts are used in the Missal which is essential at Mass when the priest brings down Jesus Christ as Food for our souls.

The substance of Christianity is the life of Christ within us, in our thoughts, and in our private and public actions. Our altars are the center of this life—the center for the priests who there offer the Eucharistic Sacrifice, and there make known the word of God.

The account of the institution of the Holy Eucharist is found in the gospel of St. Matthew: "And whilst they were at supper, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke and gave to His disciples, and said: 'Take ye and eat, This is My Body,' and taking the chalice, He gave thanks, and gave to them saying: 'Drink ye all of this; For This is My Blood of the new testament, which shall be shed for many unto remission of sins.'"

With the words, "Do you this in commemoration of Me," Christ authorized and commanded the Apostles and their successors to do the same as He had just done. Because of this power that Christ gave His priests we rejoice with Our Pastor, the Right Reverend Borkowicz, who for over a quarter of a century has brought down Christ to us in the Mass. And He being with us, we exclaim: WHEN JESUS IS PRESENT, ALL IS WELL.

As Christophers, We Strive To Be Christ-like

Together we have prayed, studied, laughed, and played. We have shared our joys and sorrows, and so we have become one . . . one in Christ, thus proving ourselves true Christophers throughout our high school years.

From the time the Blessed Virgin, the first CHRISTopher, brought Christ into the world, Christ-bearers have endeavored to carry Him always to their associates. So, we too, must be Christ-like in all that we do. We must diffuse about us a Christ-like spirit, the spirit of love and sacrifice. Then, and only then, will it be indicative that WHEN JESUS IS PRESENT, ALL IS WELL.

We Dedicate

Rt. Rev. Vincent Borkowicz

We, the Graduates of St. Stanislaus High School wish to dedicate with sincere gratitude and appreciation the Stan-Em of nineteen hundred and fifty-three

- To one who, for these many years has proven to be one of our most loyal and faithful friends—
- To one whose spiritual guidance embedded within us forever the fundamentals of our Catholic faith—
- To one who, understanding and encouraging advice, increased our determination to go in our difficult moments—
- To one whose ceaseless toil within the Church has resulted in a higher office—the duties and responsibilities of a monsignor. It seems appropriate that this honor was bestowed during the seven hundredth anniversary of the death of St. Stanislaus, bishop and martyr.

THE LIFE OF A PRIEST

'To live in the midst of the world without wishing its pleasures; to be a member of each family, yet belonging to none; to share all sufferings; to penetrate all secrets; to heal all wounds; to go from men to God and offer Him their prayers; to return from God to bring pardon and hope; to have a heart of fire for charity and a heart of bronze for chastity; to teach and to pardon, console and bless always, my God, what a life. And it is yours, O Priest of Jesus Christ.'—Lacordaire (d. 1861), the greatest pulpit orator of the nineteenth century.

All good things come to me together with Him

(BOOK OF WISDOM)

In the vineyard of the Lord everyone gets his due. There are some who labor quietly, and perfect peace of heart is their reward; there are others who toil in various fields and accomplish deeds of renown—their reward is utter success in all their undertakings, for the guiding hand is Christ Himself; there are still others whom, because of their achievements, the Church deems worthy of a temporal reward also, but with the honor comes an additional responsibility. To these last belongs our Pastor, the Rt. Rev. Vincent Borkowicz.

THE GLAD TIDINGS . . . Rev. V. Borkowicz receives the Papal Bull bestowing upon him the title of "Monsignor."

This is the day

Preceded by children, students, societies, and organizations in colorful array, the newly appointed dignitary is led processionally into the church.

Resplendent in his new robes, the Monsignor chants a solemn High Mass in thanksgiving for all graces and honors received.

which the Lord hath made

(PSALM 117-24)

He invokes the blessing of His heavenly Father upon his charges; he offers the merits of Christ in reparation for the shortcomings of the flock and the pastor!

Overwhelmed with gratitude, with utmost simplicity he thanks his people for everything done in his behalf and promises spiritual support.

Our Choristers are good to look at and delightful to hear.

School programs and school assemblies would be dull without these music makers.

Just a little remembrance from the admiring high school students. "We hope you like it!"

He pours streams of spiritual wealth for our benefit

Always living to make intercession for us

(HEBREWS-7:25)

At His feet, every sorrow finds comfort; every problem is solved; every desire quenched; every worthy hope realized.

The life of every individual is his soul. Unless it be kept fresh, and strong, and whole, it will not be able to combat the manifold obstacles that it encounters. Streams of joy, comfort, strength, and enthusiasm flood the souls of those who partake of the means so copiously and graciously offered to all by our Divine Savior. He implores you to indulge in them freely! Can you refuse?

Borne triumphantly among His chosen ones, Christ lavishly bestows graces upon His adorers.

The lilting voices gladden His heart, but the pleading melodies open His heart.

And opening His mouth, He taught them. (LUKE 5:1-11)

The beads of a rosary slipping through the hands of Mary's children ring pleasant in Her ears; but the living beads raising their voices in Her praise and treading the road to Her shrine fill Her heart with the greatest of joys.

As students of a Catholic school, we have been taught subjects that perfect the mind, the will, the heart, and the soul. During our scholastic studies at SSHi, besides accentuating our Christian training and patriotic manifestations, we were imparted with skilled guidance in EDUCATION, WISDOM, AND KNOWLEDGE, so that, we will be fit to someday to fill an honorable place in the world.*

Besides studies at St. Stanislaus, we are given the advantage to participate in extra-curricular activities which help us to gain strong, noble, and upright characters, and teach us the value of harmony and cooperation with one another. The branches of extra-curricular activities include the band, the choral group, the student council, the Eaglet staff, and the Stan-Em Staff. Through active participation in these activities we can achieve leadership, which will help us immensely in the eminent service of God and country.

Here is your ballot; think of the progress and glory of your school before you cast your vote.

The future of America rests in the hands of students who fulfill their duties as citizens.

Glory to God in the highest.

Umpa, umpa . . . toot, toot . . . boom! . . . and another piece is played by our school band. No occasion would be complete without it.

Music is harmony.
Harmony is love.
Love is God.

Classical pieces, popular arrangements, sacred hymns, spirituals, operettas, and seasonal songs . . . we sing them all.

A Man hath joy by the answer of his mouth

(PROVERBS 15-23)

Pat Zalewski as "Buttercup" in PINNAFORE looks smilingly at the group on her right—the whole world giving tribute to their Queen and their Mother.

Let's hear one more! We'll never tire of their singing!

This month shall be to you the beginning of months

(EXODUS - 12:2)

Where action never ceases—an unforgettable day in the annals of every Senior—the VARSITY NIGHT.

Aren't they beautiful?

Which shall it be?

Surprise! Surprise!

After some hesitation and argument, the "Fifth Avenue" came out victorious!

Stay with us

because it is

The final goal of our long journey.

towards evening.

(LUKE 24:29)

Cherish this pennant with your heart and bring glory to it always; don this symbol of Senior dignity and honor—prove yourself worthy of it.

what next?

It's a pretty important decision, young lady — choosing the right job. You'll want to work in pleasant surroundings — in light and airy offices with modern equipment.

And now that you're out of school, you'll expect to meet new friends where you work — young people you'll like and with whom you can enjoy your leisure time. (And how about a vacation with pay?)

Then there's the matter of a paycheck — it'll be nice to count on a steady income, a salary that's good from the start and keeps getting better with regular increases.

There's a job like this waiting for you at the telephone company!

You might want to be a telephone operator or a teller, a cashier or a clerk — those are just some of the many interesting jobs Michigan Bell has for bright young high school graduates like yourself. And there's a chance to advance in all of them.

You don't need experience to get a telephone job, and you'll earn a good salary, even while you're learning.

What next? Why not visit Michigan Bell's Employment Office? We'll be looking for you!
