Acknowledgements

This book and the picture-taking sessions for our community would not have been possible without two special ladies -- Connie and Eleanor Kawka -- two sisters who dedicated themselves entirely to this project.

On behalf of our community - many thanks!

Father Andrew

Special thanks go to Father Mitch who took the pictures of our homebound parishioners and of those who are in nursing homes, plus pictures of various parish activities; to Martha Zielinski who unselfishly gave many hours of her time as hostess for picture taking and proofing sessions and to Chuck Vorndran whose knowledge of the computer aided us in compiling the parish roster.

Our thanks also go to the other members of our directory committee: Anne Dziczkaniec, Corrine Lovett, Mary Gallina, Alana Miller, Christine Pospula, Gert and Ed Wierzbicki and Dolores Zak.

FROM THE PASTOR

My Dear Parishioners:

This book, which is given to you with great pleasure, will probably be the most important book in your home. We have tried to include all information regarding our parish and community.

The main purpose for this book is to bring us closer to each other, and to make us feel that we are one family. We very often reach for our family photo album -- now you will have another, the parish photo album.

I am very pleased that we are issuing this book during the 100th Anniversary celebration year. Let me take this opportunity to thank our Centennial Committee and all who are involved in this unique celebration. At this time, when the Parish Directory is made available to you, we are at the half-way point of our celebration, and the future will be more and more exciting.

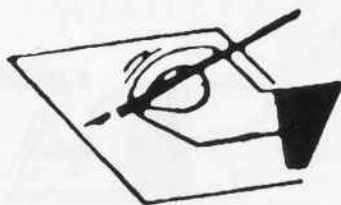

As you know, the Most Reverend Matthew H. Clark, Bishop of our Diocese, inaugurated the celebration for us, and hopefully, Cardinal Joseph Glemp of Poland will be the one who will close our Centennial Year.

My dear friends, may God bless you all -- our parish family -- as we are approaching another 100 years of our existence.

Love,

Fr. Andrew Grzela

Moi Drodzy Parafianie,

Ta książka, którą oddajemy w wasze ręce z wielką przyjemnością, prawdopodobnie będzie książką najczęściej używaną w waszym domu. Próbowaliśmy umieścić w niej wszystkie informacje jeśli idzie o naszą parafię i wspólnotę. Pierwszym celem tej książki jest: byśmy poczuli się wszyscy bliżej siebie. Mając wszystkie nasze nazwiska w jednej książce, może poczujemy, że jesteśmy jedną rodziną. W domach naszych często sięgamy po albumy z fotografiami. Dajemy wam jeszcze jeden album rodzinny - naszej parafii.

Jestem ogromnie zadowolony, że książkę tę wydajemy w Roku Obchodów Stulecia naszej parafii, w roku, w którym w szczególny sposób podkreślamy nasze życie religijne. Pozwólcie więc, że skorzystam i z tej okazji, by podziękować szczególnie Komisji Stulecia, która jest odpowiedzialna za nasze obchody, i wszystkim, którzy są zaangażowani w tej wielkiej sprawie.

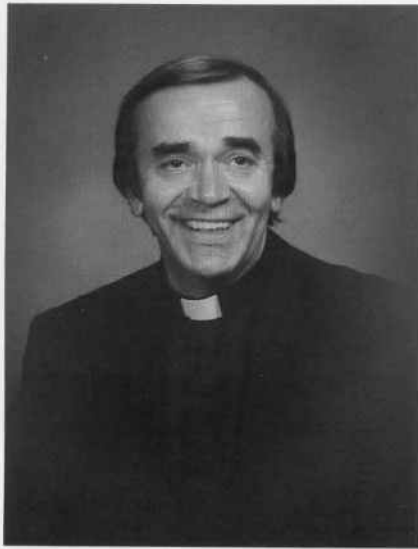

W tym czasie, kiedy wydajemy tę książkę, jesteśmy w połowie naszych uroczystości i wydaje się, że są one coraz piękniejsze i piękniejsze. Jak Państwo wiecie, uroczystości nasze otworzył Ks. Biskup Matthew H. Clark, a mamy nadzieję, że zamknie je Ks. Kardynał Józef Glemp, Prymas Polski.

Drodzy Przyjaciele, niech Pan Bóg błogosławi wam wszystkim - naszej rodzinie parafialnej, kiedy będziemy wchodzić w następne stulecie naszej parafii.

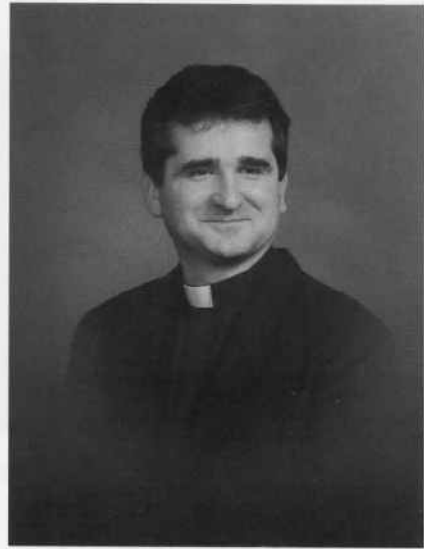

Z Oddaniem,

Ks. Andrzej Grzela

OUR CHURCH

Scenes From The Past

100th ANNIVERSARY

-- BEGINNINGS --

It was the first church in Rochester for Roman Catholic immigrants from Poland, a small wooden chapel set in the open fields that extended on either side of Hudson Avenue north of Avenue D in 1890. Its founders deliberately chose this remote location at the edge of the city, removed by a stretch of orchards, tall grass, and wildflowers from the nearest neighborhoods along Joseph Avenue and Clifford Avenue.

The church's construction represented considerable sacrifice on the part of the Polish newcomers, who numbered fewer than 100 families in 1887. Most were emigres from the Prussian-controlled section of their homeland, the men artisans and laborers who found work in clothing mills along St. Paul Street and in factories like Bausch and Lomb. Although they spoke German in addition to their own language, they were not content to reside in German neighborhoods. In 1887, the Polish families joined together in the Society of St. Casimir (Towarzystwo Sw. Kazimierza), a fraternal organization dedicated to founding a parish in Rochester for Poles.

During the next two years, the treasury of St. Casimir's Society grew with the Polish families' donations, made in special collections each Sunday, and with a generous loan extended to the Poles by St. Michael's Parish. In 1889, they were ready to purchase land, and considered two sites: one on Joseph Avenue at the edge of the German neighborhood, the other at the corner of Hudson Avenue and Salmon Street near the city line. Overwhelmingly, the men of St. Casimir's Society voted in favor of the Hudson Avenue site, an expanse of land on which they could build a parish and school, surrounded by enough open land for homes and a community of their own.

The church of St. Stanislaus Kostka was dedicated on November 16, 1890, in a ceremony officiated by Rt. Rev. Bernard McQuaid, Bishop of the Rochester Diocese. Rev. Teofil Szadzinski, a young priest who had arrived from Poland a few weeks earlier to serve as pastor of the new parish, delivered a sermon in Polish. Following Szadzinski's remarks, McQuaid spoke briefly, acknowledging the significance of the day for the Poles:

"Here you are establishing a home for yourselves in this portion of the city, and a church for Catholics of the Polish nationality. You have left behind you much that you dearly loved, a country and a home in that Polish land, much that was most dear to your hearts. But you have brought over to this new land one home from Poland . . . This is your home before God in things spiritual . . .

"And when you have a home for your priest you will want a place where your children can be educated in the principles of our holy religion and you will build a school. When you do, I will send you as teachers Sisters who can speak both Polish and English, thus your children will make rapid progress. United and firm in their faith, religion will grow and flourish in this parish of St. Stanislaus of Rochester."
